WELCOME

Welcome

Choose Light, Flirty or Kinkier, or mix the levels. Take turns drawing and reading a card. Each person can choose A, B, both, neither or “it depends.” Ask what makes the choice appealing, if they want to share. There is no score or required progression.

CONSENT

Consent comes first

This is a conversation game for adults 18+. A choice or matching answer is not permission to act. Any activity needs a separate discussion and freely given, ongoing consent. You can pass, pause or stop without explaining. Never turn a card into a demand or dare.

A Little Temptation

Would You Rather - Play & printing guide

Print and cut

Print pages 1-7 on US Letter, single-sided, at Actual Size / 100%. Cards measure 2.5 x 3.5 inches. Ordinary paper works; cardstock is optional. Cut along the dashed guides. No card backs or double-sided alignment are needed. This guide is page 8.

What is included

54 choice cards: 18 Light (teal), 18 Flirty (burgundy), 18 Kinkier (plum). Pages 1-2 are Light, 3-4 Flirty, 5-6 Kinkier. Page 7 has Welcome, Consent and four blank cards. The remaining three positions are intentionally empty. Labels work in black-and-white printing too.

Choose your level together

Pick one level, select individual cards or mix the 54 choice cards. Set aside the support and unused blank cards. There is no need to move toward kinkier cards. Use only the cards everyone wants to discuss.

Draw, choose and discover

Place the cards face down. Take turns drawing and reading the two options aloud. Each person may answer A, B, both, neither or “it depends.” If welcome, ask: “What makes that appealing to you?” You can answer differently without trying to change each other’s minds.

Keep it playful

There is no scoring, winner or required number of cards. A choice can be hypothetical. Explain as much or as little as you wish. Do not use answers as a test of affection, compatibility or willingness.

Pass, pause or stop

Anyone may skip a card, change their answer, pause or stop without giving a reason. Continue only while everyone wants to. Neither option is mandatory.

Consent stays separate

An answer, fantasy or shared preference is not permission to act. Discuss any real activity separately, including limits, preparation and ongoing check-ins. A previous yes does not replace current consent. Silence is not agreement.

Make it yours and finish kindly

Write your own A/B choices on the four blank cards and agree which level fits them. End by asking how each person feels and whether anything needs revisiting.
